Online Registration
- You may register online at VotesPA.com and Vote411.org

Registration by Mail
- Download the PA Voter Registration Application from www.buckscounty.org or VotesPA.com. Print it, complete and sign and mail to Bucks County Board of Elections, 55 E. Court Street, Doylestown, PA 18901.

In Person Registration
- You may register at the Bucks County Board of Elections Office, 55 E. Court Street, Doylestown. Contact 215-348-6154
- PennDOT: with your application for a motor vehicle driver's license
- Other state offices such as: Public Assistance Offices, Marriage License Bureaus, Orphan's Court, and Armed Forces Recruitment Centers.

Some rules apply at these state offices:

- Employees may help an applicant fill out the form but they cannot influence political party preference or display partisan allegiance
- Employees may not discourage registration or alter benefits or imply that benefits will be altered by registration.
- Where the application is made may not be disclosed to the public.
- Applications must be forwarded promptly to election commissions.

You stay registered even if you haven't voted recently. An elector may not be removed from the registration rolls except:

- By request of the elector.
- Upon death of the elector.
- Upon confirmation that he has moved outside the county.
- Upon determination of a valid voter removal program.
You must update your voter registration if:

- you have moved or changed your address,
- changed your name, or
- wish to change your party.

Voter ID Requirements

You do NOT need photo ID to vote.

However, if you are voting for the first time at your polling place, you WILL need to show some form of ID, although it does NOT have to be a government or state institution issued Photo ID. Student, employee IDs, for example, are acceptable and do NOT have to have an expiration date.

For those voting for the FIRST TIME, the following table lists the acceptable forms of Photo ID and Non-Photo ID.
